Wilson's Horse Now One of Most Useful of Three-Year-Olds.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, November 11.-The victory gained by R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Dolly Spanker in the running of the Election Day handicap at Acueduct Wednesday stamps the son of Kingston-Lady Gay as one of the most useful three-year-olds !

have run more consistently than he since the present season began, and the chances are that he will add one or two more victories to his already long string be-of Saturday's eard at Aquedust, and as the race is a weight-for-age affair, he will almost certainty be the post favorite.

Since the present racing season began Mr. Wilson's great three-year-old has started twenty-two times, and has been in the money in nineteen. Nine times he has been victorious; six times has he been been victorious; six times has no been second, and four times third, racing un-der sli kinds of weights and conditions. Three of his defeats have been in uses finishes and at times when the Kingston three-year-old had the worst of it in the finishes and at time worst of it in the matter of weights.

His performance in the Election Day handicap Tucaday, when he took up 123 pounds, conceding from fifteen to thirty-six pounds, conceding from fitteen to thirty-six pounds to Ieraelite, Grenade, St. Valentine and Ostrich, and running the distance, a mile and a furious, in record time for the track, was by long odds the best race he has run, and reflects great credit upon Trainer Healey. Incidentally, Jockey H. Philips, who had the mount, rode the three-year-old in clever fashion. He was very patient with the horse in the early stages of the race and avoided the killing pace set by Grenade and Israelite, reserving his mount's speed for the run through the stretch.

While the Hooder lad got the decision, he also got a heating that instilled into him the deepest sort of admiration for the husky Beston boys prowess. This admiration, as the time for the second hattle between the two draws near, has ripened into a fear that he will end his fighting career ingloriously beaten by the coming middleweight star, and rather than take the chance he is trying to get some one else to take Sullivan's place. An offer has been made to John Wille to sail out foward the coast in time to so on with the "Kid" the first week of the Ascot racing meet. It is said that even elever Jack O'Brien would be more preferable to McCoy than Sillivan, hesmuch as O'Brien's punch is not so deadly as the "Twin's."
